

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	Project Coordinator
Date of Job Description	03 June 2020
Reporting to	Senior Technical Advisor
Job Summary: The Project Coordinator is responsible for coordinating, administering of research project activities and leads data analysis and inter. Assists in project planning, management, and ensures that the established work scope, research protocol and regulatory requirements are followed. Oversees and coordinates the recruitment of participants, as required and serves as the principle liaison for the project at the community level.
Roles & Responsibilities
Project Management: › Design and lead qualitative research efforts of the study › Prepares the work plan and schedule for the research project › Work with supervisor in planning and coordinating daily activities for the research project › Prepare and coordinate project materials for Institutional Review Board (IRB) submission and approval › Plans and coordinates the staffing of research studies, to include the recruitment and administration of research support staff, as appropriate to the activity › Monitors the progress of research activities; develops and maintains records of research activities, and prepares periodic and ad hoc reports, as required by investigators, donor, and/or regulatory bodies. › Implement quality control process throughout the conduct of the project activities › Ensures the smooth and efficient day-to-day operation of research and data collection activities › Assist with the administration of the development and performance review activities for the team, equipping and enabling staff to deliver the required professional standard › Develop and maintain service information including effective recording and retrieval of information. This may include: recorded qualitative interviews, database of stakeholders contacts in the county, training materials including recorded videos and database of study participants contact details Financial/Budget management › Track and control project expenses by individual budget line items within the approved budget › Liaises with the finance office to produce required financial reports to the donor and to track prudent spending of the project. › Ensuring that other project teams submit their financial reports as provided in the finance policy › Identifying areas for improvement and develop solutions to prevent project delays and help the project meet its budgetary and cash flow goals › Participate and contribute in quarterly project financial review meetings Data Collection, Management and Analysis › Ensure that only the approved tools and data systems are used during data collection › Perform regular monitoring to ensure the quality of data collected by RE and to verify the accuracy of reported data. › Ensure that data management queries are addressed and communicated to the data manager in an accurate and timely manner. › Ensure that project quality procedures are followed while documenting data management processes. › Ensure that the research assistants have all the materials required to support data collection activities including troubleshooting technology issues whenever or immediately they are reported.

Knowledge translation /Research and learning

- › Develop, lead and execute communication strategy that will increase the use of research evidence within policy and program decision making
- › Initiating, drafting and editing of data products materials, including peer reviewed publications, policy briefs, factsheets that targets a wide range of audience
- › Design, organize and lead in convening data utilization and interrogation workshops to ensure project research data is consumed as intended.
- › Conducts desk review to ensure that the project focus aligns, and remains relevant to country priorities
- › Review and recommends improvements to existing research methodologies based on the project learnings
- › Report and document comprehensively lessons learnt and any adverse events that may occur during project implementation

Performing any other duties as may be assigned by the supervisor or managementEssential Requirements*Academic / Professional Qualifications

- Bachelor degree in social studies/Public health related or Equivalent. Masters in sociology or equivalent will be an added advantage
- 5 years relevant work experience as a Project coordinator in qualitative research settings.
- Previous experience in working with the community or government officials
- Evidence in capabilities of qualitative data analysis
- Proficient in using qualitative data analysis tools

Skills, knowledge and abilities

- › Ability to manage multiple activities/projects and achieving deadlines
- › Ability to set high standard for self and others
- › Creates a team spirit, which engages others to innovate and perform effectively
- › Offers a flexible approach in working hours