

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	Senior Project Officer - Clinical
Date of job description:	18 th August 2020
Reporting to:	Head of Programs & Research
Main tasks and responsibilities
- This position will be overall responsible for designing and leading in implementing strategies to improve HIV testing, care and treatment for key populations at high risks of HIV/AIDS and sexually transmitted infections, in line with national guidelines - Will be responsible for managing an ongoing KP program and ensure that the program achieves its objectives and meets ICRHK and donor standards - Overall supervision of clinical staff, community mobilizers and peer educators at supported sites to ensure the provision of high-quality, stigma-free, non-discriminatory sexual and reproductive health (SRH) services - Prepare activity, weekly, monthly, quarterly and annual reports to be sent to the donors and various other stakeholders - Conduct capacity building for Peer Educators, staff and Community Based Organizations. - Develop programmatic work plans in line with the project's activities - Ensures timely financial and management accountability of all activities within the program by providing all necessary documentation required. - Support the Monitoring and Evaluation Advisor in data review, data interpretation and data consumption for decision making - Plan, coordinate with M& E department and ensure appropriate and timely delivery of reports to donors
Specific Requirements
- Degree in a clinical discipline (Medicine, Nursing, or Clinical Medicine) - At least one-year experience post internship for MBChB or MD or 5 years' experience for those with a diploma in clinical medicine or nursing - Experience in HIV/AIDS service delivery, specifically in ART provision - Experience in study coordination and field supervision or research - Knowledge of basic office packages with proficiency in analytical packages and proficiency in Excel is a MUST - Good interpersonal and communication skills. - Ability to work independently with minimal supervision and over long hours - Good oral and written communication skills in Kiswahili and English. - Certified to work in Good Clinical Practices environment is an added advantage - Registration with relevant regulatory bodies	