

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	Program Officer – Third Party Monitoring (TPM)
Date of job description:	01-August-2020
Reporting to:	Monitoring, Evaluation, Research and Learning Advisor
Main tasks and responsibilities
• The Program Officer will assist the Third Party Monitoring (TPM) team (Program Manager, Monitoring and Evaluation Advisor and National Family Planning Expert) to co-ordinate day-to-day activities of the project. • Participate in the recruitment and supervision of data collectors and enumerators in each county of data collection • Prepare for the training of data collectors and support the TPM team in training – prepare training materials, organize logistics related to training venue, trainers, transport reimbursement etc. • Supervise collection of quantitative data at health facilities in various counties. • Conduct structured key informant interviews at the health facility level and at the county level. • Routine data assessment for quality, completeness and accuracy, and provide feedback to data collectors in order to improve the quality of data collected. • Support the MEAL advisor to conduct quarterly analyses of data and to prepare reports from data collection. • Support in ensuring organizational data protection guidelines are adhered to during all monitoring, evaluation and research implementation and dissemination processes. • Prepare quarterly reports on the status of project activities summarizing accomplished activities, problems encountered and solutions identified; • Assist in the development of monitoring and evaluation systems of project activities; • Report on the different relationships of field activities: resources used v. results realized; results v. expected outcome; overall impact (v. objectives). • Facilitate learning through a variety of delivery methods including classroom instruction, virtual training, and on-the-job coaching. • Support in developing a risk management plan for the project identifying potential risks and mitigation strategies. • Maintain project staff training records. • Facilitate field activities during training and during data collection.
Specific Requirements
Formal Education: Bachelor's degree in health information management, health sciences, social sciences, or statistics.

- Experience in monitoring and evaluation.
- Experience in data analyses using STATA and/or R is a big added advantage
- 3 Years working experience in community related work.
- Experience in working at county and sub-county levels.
- Experience with monitoring data collection using mobile phone technology(ODK)
- Good interpersonal and communication skills.
- Ability to work independently with minimal supervision and over long hours.