

The International Centre for Reproductive Health is seeking qualified individuals for the following positions for an anticipated five-year USAID-funded project on HIV prevention, care and treatment and sexual and reproductive Health. These positions are contingent upon award from the donor. Kenya nationals are strongly encouraged to apply.

CHIEF OF PARTY

Minimum Requirements:

- A Master's Degree in public health, social services, management, or business administration, or related field.
- At least seven years demonstrated, recent, experience within the capacity as senior staff in some aspect of HIV/AIDS prevention, care and treatment; and/or quality improvement/quality assurance; health systems strengthening; M&E; and operations research.
- At least seven years' experience in managing complex public health programs or programs of similar scope and size, including program, financial and administration management, award contractual compliance, sub-award management, and tracking project performance and costs via specific funding streams.
- At least five years' experience in development, managing, overseeing, and evaluating public health programs of similar size and complexity.
- Strong management skills, strategic vision, leadership qualities, professional reputation, ability to create synergies where applicable, interpersonal skills, and written and oral presentation skills to fulfil the diverse technical and managerial requirements of the project description.
- Professional level of oral and written fluency in English language.

DEPUTY CHIEF OF PARTY AND SENIOR TECHNICAL ADVISOR

Minimum Requirements:

- A Master's Degree in public health or related field.
- At least seven years of experience in managing and implementing complex public health programs of similar scope and size in a development context, with at least five of those years in Sub-Saharan Africa, preferably in Kenya.
- At least five years of demonstrated experience in project design of HIV technical activities and managing and supervising teams.
- At least three years demonstrated, recent experience within the capacity as senior staff in some aspect of HIV/AIDS prevention, care and treatment; and/or quality improvement/quality assurance; health systems strengthening; M&E; and operations research.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively with government representatives, for-profit private sector entities, local community organizations, donors and other stakeholders, particularly at the sub-national level.
- Professional level of oral and written fluency in English language

MONITORING AND EVALUATION SPECIALIST

Minimum Requirements:

- A Master's degree in a relevant discipline, such as public health, mathematics, business, statistics, or international relations.
- At least seven years of experience designing and implementing monitoring and evaluating activities for complex programs in developing countries.
- A firm command of the M&E issues with respect to improvements in quality integrated service and support programs.

- Demonstrated experience in setting up and managing M&E systems that track performance as per the objectives of this project (e.g. service integration, performance against each funding stream).
- Demonstrated analytical skills to measure the outcomes of the project's activities and support project supervision.
- Strong writing and organizational skills for monitoring and reporting on program and program outcomes and impacts.
- Professional level of oral and written fluency in English language.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Minimum Requirements:

- A Master's degree in Business, Accounting, Finance or related field relevant to the position requirements.
- At least eight years of experience in financial management for large complex projects, of which at least five years were working in the field of international development.
- Professional level of oral and written fluency in English language.

Application letter and an up-to-date CV with names and addresses of three referees and telephone contacts should be submitted electronically by 21st August 2020, 5pm addressed to e-mail: secretariat@icrhk.org with subject: "Application Chief of Party or Deputy Chief of Party/Senior Technical Advisor or Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist or Program Director of Finance and Administration"

ICRHK is committed to equal opportunities and welcomes applications from appropriately qualified people from all sections of the community.

ICRHK does not charge a fee at any stage of its recruitment.