

INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH KENYA

The vision

“To be a center of excellence in sexual and reproductive health research and interventions”

The mission

“The mission of ICRHK is to contribute to improved health status of Kenyans by designing and implementing innovative, evidence-based and cost-effective interventions and conduct research capable of influencing public policy and practice in the field of sexual and reproductive health”

ICRHK Management

Country Director

Dr. Griffins Manguro

Head of Finance, Administration and Human Resources

Irene Kiminza

ICRHK Board

Prof. Kishor Mandaliya – Board Chair

Prof. Walter Jaoko – Board Secretary

Dr. Esther Getambu – Board Treasurer

Lou Dierick

Prof. Marleen Temmerman

Prof. Stanley Luchters

Dr. M.J Othigo

Dr. S. K Shariff

HIV/STI Projects among Key Populations - 2021

Afya Pwani – KP Interventions

- Map out FSW and MSM in Mombasa and Kilifi Counties
- Train peer educators to provide peer-led education and services at hotspots
- 6986 FSW, 1063 MSM and 269 Transgender persons received services from October to December 2020

UNFPA – FSW Interventions

- Map out FSW and MSM in Kilifi and Mtwapa town
- Train peer educators to provide peer-led education and services at hotspots
- Test at least 90% of these FSW and MSM, link 90% to care and treatment and ensure viral suppression to at least 90%

Jilinde

- Implementation research in 10 counties in Kenya
- Generate learnings on oral PrEP scale-up in Kenya and such settings
- Generate evidence on the cost of oral PrEP scale-up and compare the cost-effectiveness of this compared to other interventions
- BMGF-funded

Sexual and gender based violence research and programs

Sexual and gender-based violence center at Coast General Hospital

- Established in 2007 by a collaboration between ICRHK and CPGH
- Almost 9,000 survivors received care in the last 12 years
- Clinical, psychological and legal support provided

Amplify Change

- Create awareness on SGBV within the community
- Strengthen services at the GBVRC center

160 girls project

- Public education (school children) on rights to sexual violence

Sexual violence study

- Measure prevalence of Sexual violence in children aged 12 to 17 years In four counties
- Kilifi, Kwale, Kisumu, Homa Bay

Tuongee study

- Public education for SGBV
- Establish a community of practice for SGBV managers in four health facilities in Mombasa
- Community dialogues on SGBV

Maternal, Child, Adolescent Health and Family Planning

PM4Action

- Uses innovative mobile technology to support low-cost, rapid turnaround surveys monitoring key health and development indicators
- Ongoing in 11 countries through a network of universities and research institutes
- ICRHK leads implementation in the consortium in Kenya

First-time young mothers project

- Implementation Research at Mtwapa Sub-county hospital to demonstrate best practices on RMNCH interventions to adolescent mothers pregnant for the first time
- 1500 young mothers enrolled into the research

Linda Mtoto

- Intervention to identify children victims of commercial sexual exploitation in Kisauni and Changamwe sub-counties in Mombasa and to link them to support services
- Support the County Government to establish structures to coordinate CSEC prevention and response

ICRHK Laboratory

- Established over 10 years ago for processing of research specimens
- Participated in numerous research, including clinical trials on HIV, STI, nutrition
- Availability of -80 degrees freezers for bio banking of specimens
- Provides services for testing samples for COVID-19

Contacts

3rd Avenue, off Mahesh Doshi Road, Nyali, Mombasa

P.O Box 91109-80103

+254734 466 466

Info@icrhk.org

www.icrhk.org

For collaboration

Contact the Country Director

Dr. Griffins Manguro

gmanguro@icrhk.org