

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	Senior Program Officer
Date of job description:	29 th November 2021
Reporting to:	Programs Manager
Main tasks and responsibilities
- Will be overall in-charge of a program targeting prevention of HIV and clinical care for key populations affected by HIV/AIDS. He/she will be overall in-charge of organizing, planning, coordinating and implementing activities under this program. - Will be responsible for monitoring both the programmatic and the financial aspects of the program to ensure compliance with ICRHK and donor regulations. - Will be the primary supervisor for the clinical and community mobilization staff under the program. - Will provide technical support and supervision for clinical care. - Will work with the M and E department to support sites to develop monthly performance dashboard, and lead the discussion on using data to improve performance. - Will coordinate monthly performance review sessions for each site, and conduct monthly continuous medical education for clinical staff in the KP project - Develop monthly, quarterly and annual work plans and monitor progress - Prepare activity, monthly, quarterly and annual reports. - Identify research within the project and lead/collaborate on abstracts and manuscripts - Represent the organization in county-level and national-level forums such as the Technical Working Groups - Participate in new business development. - Perform any other duty as may be assigned by the Supervisor and the PI.
Core competence/requirement
- Degree in medicine, nursing, clinical medicine or related discipline. 5 years and above experience in SRH service delivery which could include SGBV, PEP, ART and FP. - Experience in HIV/AIDS service delivery, especially ART provision and PrEP - Experience working with key populations - Experience in study coordination and field supervision Additional competences which provide an added advantage - A master's degree in a related field - Experience in research as evidenced by at least a publication, abstract presentation or experience working in a research institution. - Good interpersonal and communication skills. - Ability to work independently with minimal supervision and over long hours - Certified to work in Good Clinical Practices environment is an added advantage - Registration with relevant regulatory bodies	