

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	Program Officer – Qualitative
Date of Job Description	6 th March 2023
Reporting to:	MEL Advisor
Job Summary: Work closely with a multidisciplinary team, the Principal Investigator/National FP expert, and the National Monitoring and Evaluation Expert to lead qualitative research efforts as part of third-party monitoring for a national FP program. In addition, support in qualitative data management, analysis, and dissemination.
Key Responsibilities: coordinate field activities the third-party monitoring including recruitment, training, and supervision of research assistants; oversee data collection through focus group discussions, In-depth interviews/Key informant interviews, and direct observation; support in qualitative analysis, report writing, and dissemination of findings; participate in journal publications and professional conference presentations. Other key responsibilities include preparing documents for Ethics review application, ensuring adherence to data handling and confidentiality, and quality control.
Qualitative data collection, analysis and dissemination
• Support in designing and pre-testing of data collection tools • Train research assistants on qualitative data collection techniques and offer technical assistance during field data collection • Guiding the research assistants through the process of contacting/identifying research participants, screening for eligibility, informed consent and data handling techniques • Lead in transcription, translations, and analysis of qualitative data • Write and disseminate the study findings by preparing comprehensive qualitative summaries • Ensure safe transmission, storage and archiving of qualitative data and scripts
Coordination of project/study activities
• Co-ordinate day-to-day activities of the project by establishing and maintaining a project work plan

- Ensure the necessary documents for ethics approval application are prepared and maintain a regulatory binder for the approved study documents
- Participate in the recruitment and supervision of data collectors and enumerators in each county of data collection
- Prepare for the training of data collectors and support the TPM team in training; prepare training materials, organize logistics related to the training venue, trainers, transport reimbursement etc
- Supervise data collection in health facilities and in communities in various counties

Quality assurance

- Perform regular review of the regulatory binder to ensure valid research certificates and valid Good Clinical practices(GCP)certificates for all staff involved in the project
- Ensure all study documents are handled and stored with accordance to data handling and protection guidelines

Essential Requirements

- At least a Bachelor's degree in - medical anthropology, medical sociology, public health, or a related field emphasizing qualitative research methods training
- 2+ years' experience in research involving human subjects
- 2+ years conducting in-depth and key informant interviews, focus group discussions, and participant observation
- Verifiable experience in performing qualitative data analysis using nVIVO, Dedoose or any to other related qualitative software
- Experience supervising field data collectors
- Strong organizational, and problem-solving skills
- Strong interpersonal skills and a team player.
- Excellent written, verbal and visual communication skills are required.

- Coordination of multi-county studies and interventions