EOI NUMBER: ICRHK | EOI | 30 | 2023

Vacancy Announcement - Private Sector Organizations

Private Sector Engagement to scale up Hormonal IUD SERVICES

Vacancy Announcement period 23rd May – 31st May, 2023

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Strengthening the country's capacity to provide and scale up Hormonal IUD services through the private sector

Hiring Office	International Centre for Reproductive Health - Kenya (ICRHK)
Background	The Ministry of Health (MoH) through the Division of Reproductive and Maternal Health (DRMH) in collaboration with Family Planning implementing partners has successfully developed National Hormonal IUD roll out and scale up plan, to enhance choice and availability of quality contraceptives in the public sector. Rationale Hormonal IUD has largely been offered in the private sector which is often inaccessible and unaffordable due to the high cost of accessing this service. To facilitate and increase the access for all, the government has developed an orientation package for healthcare providers who are already trained on basic family planning, implant insertion and copper IUD- to receive training on Hormonal IUD and DMPA SC whose insertion technique package is different.
Objective of the sub- contacting	To build the capacity of master trainers and trainer of trainers (TOTs) in Bungoma and Kakamega counties
Scope of work	1. Training of 15 Trainer of Trainers (TOTs) on Hormonal IUDs to roll out hormonal IUD in private facilities from Bungoma and Kakamega Counties 2. Training of 25 private health care providers to enhance Hormonal IUD roll out in private facilities from Bungoma and Kakamega Counties 3. Training of 25 private health care providers on supply chain management from Bungoma and Kakamega Counties
Duration and working schedule	The sub-contract will run from the time of successful selection of the organization to October 31 st , 2023
Place where services are to be delivered	The place of location for the successful private sector organization with possible travels to Bungoma and Kakamega Counties

How the work will be delivered	The final products of the subcontracting will be delivered in both hard and soft copies in a format that is acceptable to ICRH with a copy to UNFPA The deliverables are: - Training Reports - Financial expenditure documents, accompanied by participant attendances and payment lists in line with the contractual agreements
Monitoring and progress control, including reporting	ICRHK will ensure the private partner organization identified works within the UNFPA policy requirements and adheres to all required standards.
Supervisory arrangements	The subcontracted organization will be monitored by ICRHK's UNFPA program officer, under the oversight of the country director.
Expected travels	Travels by the private sector organization, national FP program manager/designee and health care providers in Bungoma and Kakamega Counties.
Required expertise, technical skills, qualifications and competence, including language requirements:	The following competencies and qualifications are required: - Experience in working with private providers in the country - Renown private sector organization with nationally or regional recognized capacity will have an added advantage
Other relevant information or special conditions, if any	COVID 19 protocols shall be observed as per the Ministry of Health guidelines.
Other Considerations	The subcontracting consideration will be based on the organizations' track record and/or credible references as provided by previous organizational partnerships
Interested candidates are requested to send their Expression of Interest, Financial Proposal , Curriculum Vitae and a Sample of previous written assignment to procurement@icrhk.org by 31 st May, 2023 at 5pm.
