

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	County Field Supervisor
Date of Job Description	01March2024
Reporting to	Senior Program Officer
Job Summary: The County Field Supervisor will oversee the data collection process for the household survey in a designated area. H/She will be responsible for managing a team of Female resident enumerators, ensuring data quality, and maintaining project timelines. At the County level, the County Field Supervisor represents the organization to relevant stakeholders. This role requires strong leadership, organizational skills, and the ability to work effectively in a dynamic environment.
Role and Responsibilities Team Management - Recruit, train, and supervise a team of resident enumerators for household surveys. - Provide guidance, support, and feedback to enumerators to ensure quality data collection. - Schedule and assign survey tasks to enumerators, ensuring adequate coverage of designated areas. Data Collection Oversight - The County Field Supervisor provides general support, guidance, and serves as focal point during program planning, implementation and reporting at the county level. - Ensure that only the approved tools are used during the fieldwork process. - Monitor field activities to ensure adherence to survey protocols and data collection procedures. - Conduct regular spot checks and quality control measures to verify the accuracy and completeness of collected data. - The County Field Supervisor is responsible for the county security management and ensures that staffs are working in secure environment. Community Engagement: - Liaise with local community leaders and stakeholders to facilitate survey implementation and garner support. - Address community concerns or issues related to survey activities in a timely and respectful manner. - Foster positive relationships with the community to encourage participation and cooperation. Data Management - Communicate regularly to the REs to ensure that the REs are following the protocols and data of high quality is being collected - Ensure that all data management queries are addressed and communicated to the central team in an accurate and timely manner. - Ensure that project quality procedures are followed while documenting data management processes in their respective county. - Ensure that all the project documents are handled, stored in a safe and secure place. - Report and document comprehensively lessons learnt and any adverse events that may occur during project implementation at their respective counties. - Ensure that the Resident Enumerators have all the materials required to support data collection activities including troubleshooting technology issues whenever or immediately they are reported. - The County Field Supervisor will communicate regularly with the central staff about any issues/occurrences that cannot be resolved independently at the county level during the implementation of the project and document all matters resolved at County level.

Performing any other duties as may be assigned by the supervisor or management.

Academic / Professional Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in social sciences, statistics, or a related field.
- Prior experience in survey research, data collection, or fieldwork management.
- Strong leadership and interpersonal skills, with the ability to effectively manage a team in a field setting.
- Excellent organizational and problem-solving abilities, with attention to detail.
- Proficiency in computer applications such as Microsoft Excel, Word, and ODK
- Knowledge of community engagement strategies and cultural sensitivity.
- Ability to communicate effectively in both written and verbal formats.
- Flexibility to work irregular hours and travel to various locations as required.
- Have a valid driving Licence.