

Attachment 1:	Job Description
Title of Position:	Communications Officer
Date of job description:	17th May 2024
Reporting to:	Deputy Country Director
Job Summary: The Communication Officer holds a key role in ensuring the organization's mission and activities are effectively communicated to a variety of stakeholders. Responsibilities include leading enhancing visibility and advocacy efforts, overseeing media relations, and fostering a positive public image. The role aims to maintain a strong public profile and facilitate meaningful engagement with donors through strategic media, stakeholder engagements, and innovative communication strategies.
Main tasks and responsibilities
Communications Strategy and Planning ✓ Develop and implement comprehensive communication strategies to enhance ICRHK's visibility and outreach. ✓ Coordinate with program teams to identify communication needs and objectives. ✓ Monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of communication strategies and adjust plans accordingly. ✓ Ensure that all activities comply with communication strategy by following donor and ICRHK guidelines. Content Creation and Management ✓ Create, edit, and publish engaging content for ICRHK's website, social media platforms, newsletters, and other communication channels. ✓ Develop press releases, media advisories, and other external communication materials. ✓ Ensure all content aligns with ICRHK's brand and messaging guidelines. Social Media Management ✓ Manage and grow ICRHK's presence on social media platforms, including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, and others. ✓ Develop and implement social media campaigns to increase engagement and reach. ✓ Monitor social media trends and analytics to optimize performance. Media Relations ✓ Build and maintain relationships with journalists, media outlets, and other stakeholders. ✓ Coordinate media requests and arrange interviews with ICRHK staff and experts. ✓ Organize press conferences, media briefings, and other media events ✓ Develop creative ways to document programmatic processes, successes, and achievements (e.g. through photos/infographics/case stories, in periodic newsletters, brochures, briefs, website, social sites, etc.) ✓ Participate in donor visits to showcase project progress and achievements. Internal Communications ✓ Develop and disseminate internal newsletters, updates, and other communication materials to staff. ✓ Coordinate internal communication efforts to ensure staff are informed and engaged with organizational activities. Event Support ✓ Assist in the planning and execution of events, workshops, and conferences. ✓ Develop promotional materials and coordinate media coverage for events.

Brand Management

- ✓ Ensure consistent application of ICRHK's branding across all communication materials.
- ✓ Develop and update communication templates and guidelines as needed.
- ✓ Store, sort, and maintain a database of photographs of projects and their activities.

Specific Requirements

- ✓ Bachelor's Degree in Public relations, communications, and journalism, or related field.
- ✓ 5-years' experience in communication for health-related
- ✓ Must have creativity in developing storylines; ability to translate complex policies into easily understood messages that reach a wide audience;
- ✓ Must have a high level of English proficiency – written and spoken
- ✓ Good interpersonal skills: the ability to communicate clearly and effectively at all levels, taking into account cultural and language difficulties.
- ✓ Strong organizational skills and attention to detail;
- ✓ Knowledge of computer systems and applications, specifically interactive digital media
- ✓ Knowledge of how to present information to different audiences including the general public, media to high-level decision-makers.
- ✓ Analytical and conceptual skills to think and plan strategically. Skills and experience in communication programs, monitoring, review, and evaluation.
- ✓ Proven ability to effectively manage relationships with government officials, community groups, and other ICRHK partners.
- ✓ Knowledge of photography and digital camera use.
- ✓ Demonstrated skills in program communication, development of Information, Education and Communication material documentation.